INSTRUCTIONS

- 1 Please find an old glass jar or glass bottle in your home.
- 2 Take your old jar or bottle and soak off any labels and leave it to dry so it's clean and dry to paint.
- 3 Think about the design you would like on your jar or bottle. One technique which works well is painting many simple shapes like dots, stars or hearts in different sizes. If you are feeling more ambitious you could draw something.
- 4 Before making a start on the glass, try practicing your design on paper.

Top Tip: Arch your hand away from the glass when drawing to avoid smudges!

- 5 If you make a mistake; simply dampen your kitchen roll and wipe off the paint. Just make sure it's then dry before painting again.
- 6 When your painting is done, leave it to dry and then tie your ribbon around the neck of your jar or bottle and finally drop in your tealight. If you are using a wine bottle; replace the cork/cap with a candlestick.
